

The Weary Dunlop Scholarship.

The Weary Dunlop scholarship is a scholarship of $500 available to a student of ICARUS College or Medical Entrance, who is a Victorian VCE student in 2006 and commences medical school at Monash University in 2007. The student must have obtained a score in the 100th percentile in section 2 of the 2006 UMAT test.

About 'Weary' Dunlop

Sir Edward Dunlop, or 'Weary' as thousands knew him, became an Australian national hero. A brilliant student and sportsman, he graduated as a surgeon and played rugby for Australia, before going to England to complete his medical studies.

When World War II broke out, he volunteered as an Army Surgeon, serving in Palestine, Greece and Egypt, before transferring to Java. Weary elected to be captured with his hospital rather than escape, spending over three years as a prisoner-of-war under the Japanese. His care for men under his command and his defiance of his captors in the face of brutality, starvation and death made him a legend.

Returning to Australia in 1945, Weary dedicated his life to the care of former prisoners-of-war. He went on to become a pioneering cancer surgeon. Weary's special genius was to organise, to oversee and to inspire others.
